Miss Venita Gallahan of Los Angeles is visiting her sister, Mrs. Eby, and is helping at the Ebystore during the holiday rush.

Mrs. Norman Leake received a message Tuesday announcing that her brother had been killed while guiding a party of hunters into the mountain territory above Mt. Lassen. Mrs. Leake is awaiting further details from another brother, who left Lodi yesterday on the 36-hour trip into the mountains, but supposes that the death was due to a stray shot.

Raisin Loaf.—One egg, two tablespoons fat, two cups graham flour, one teaspoon of salt, two teaspoons of sugar, one to one and one-half cups of milk. If you cook for only two people, you may take out half of this mixture and cook in a murfin tin (making six murfins) and warm up the rest, adding half a cup of raisins. Bake in a round shallow tin. Remove from oven and butter while hot and cover with maple syrup.
